STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
COLLEGE AT CORTLAND

1985-86 ■ THE 118TH YEAR

ALMA MATER

*By lofty elm trees shaded round,
Tioughnioga near,
Our grand old Cortland College stands,
To all of us how dear!*

*We'll sing to thee, dear Alma Mater,
Of love that shall never die,
We'll strive for thy glory eternal,
Keep thy stainless honor high.*

*Inspiring each son and each daughter
The noblest aims to try,
All thy fame and thy spirit,
Thy might are ours
As the swift years hurry by.*

Austin J. Ranney (Doctor of Laws)

Austin J. Ranney, who was born in Cortland, will receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from State University of New York at today's Cortland College Commencement. He is an expert in the area of electoral behavior and one of America's most influential political analysts. He has taught at Yale University, the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Wisconsin at Madison and is a member of the Democratic National Committee's Commission on the Role and Future of Presidential Primaries. Since 1976 he has been Resident Scholar in American Political Institutions at the American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research.

LISTING OF GRADUATES

Since the names of graduates and honors recipients presented in the program must be compiled in advance of Commencement, the listing of candidates and honors recipients is not official and is subject to such revision as may be mandated by satisfaction of degree requirements and of academic grades.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Honors awarded to candidates for bachelor's degrees, as listed in this program, are based on quality point averages recorded as of Feb. 1, 1986 and are subject to change. Honors are awarded when quality point averages meet the following standards:

-  Summa Cum Laude, 3.75 and above on a scale of 4
  Magna Cum Laude, 3.5 to 3.749
 * Cum Laude, 3.2 to 3.499

DUAL MAJORS

A dagger (†) after a name indicates the student is being graduated with a dual major.

Academic Heraldry

As an occasion meant to be both joyful and solemn, Commencement lends itself to the pageantry of an academic procession which has its roots in medieval times. The gowns and hoods worn by the faculty members, candidates for graduation and platform dignitaries distinguish the institution from which the wearer was or will be graduated, the level of the degree earned and the field of learning.

In 1895 American colleges established a standard code of academic dress, specifying three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, the gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve with the front part cut in an arc, and the gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The doctor's gown also is trimmed in velvet. The hood's inner lining, which folds out at the back and center, indicates the colors of the institution granting the degree, while the border, which comes around to the front of the neck, represents the field of learning.

The black mortar board cap is quite standard. Its only distinguishing feature is a gold tassel worn by the holder of the doctor's degree. At today's ceremony, those who will be graduating with honors will be noticeable by the color of the tassels on their caps — red for summa cum laude, white and red for magna cum laude and cum laude.

The Mace

The mace is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of authority. The mace bearer precedes the platform party and places the mace on a special stand where it remains while the official proceedings of Commencement are under way. Cortland's mace is a "Torch of Learning" of silver and rosewood created by silversmith John Marshall.

The Gonfalons

The three bright banners carried in the academic procession are called gonfalons. The gonfalon in red, white, black and grey represents the College, while the gonfalon in shades of peach and green represents the Division of Professional Studies and the gonfalon in shades of blue, grey and burgundy represents the Division of Arts and Sciences. The gonfalons were designed by Libby Kowalski, assistant professor of art, and Kathy Maher, a 1984 Cortland graduate, while the standards were made by Bard Prentiss, chairman of the Art Department, and J. Eric Kroot, a student. Materials were provided by the Gilbert and Mary Cahill Foundation and Distinguished Teaching Professor Rozanne M. Brooks.

The Medallion and Chain

The silver medallion of office worn by President James M. Clark was created by Gerald M. DiGiusto, professor of art, and was presented to the College in 1983 by DiGiusto, Dr. Rozanne M. Brooks and the late Dr. Gilbert Cahill. The neck chain was made by Linda Steward of DeRuyter and the burnished walnut case in which the medallion and chain are kept when not being worn for ceremonial occasions was designed and finished by Bard Prentiss.
